

Help Fight Hunger in our Community

“When will I go back to work? How will I pay the rent? Where is our next meal coming from?” Today, thousands of our hard-working neighbors are asking themselves these questions.

Fortunately, the following organizations – supported by neighbors like you -- are providing answers.

Don't let these vital groups run out of food while hungry people are still in line!

Trinity Center, Walnut Creek. Trinity Center offers meals, clothing, case management and more to our homeless and working poor neighbors. Women over 55 years old are Trinity Center's fastest growing population segment.

- To learn more: <https://trinitycenterwc.org/>
- To contribute online: <https://bit.ly/3E69ke8>
- To contribute by check: Make payable to “Trinity Center” and mail to Jane Emanuel, 624 Shadowhawk Way, Walnut Creek, CA 94595.

Monument Crisis Center, Concord. Monument offers nutritious food, quality resources and referrals to low-income individuals and families. The Center would be glad to have donations of funds (preferred) and non-perishable foodstuffs.

- To learn more: <https://www.monumentcrisiscenter.org/>
- To contribute online: <https://www.monumentcrisiscenter.org/donate-now>
- To contribute by check: Make payable to Monument Crisis Center, 1990 Market Street, Concord, CA 94520.

The Food Bank of Contra Costa & Solano. One in nine county residents turns to the Food Bank. One in four are children. Food Bank distributes food directly to low-income people at community sites and supplies other nonprofits serving the ill, needy and infants.

- To learn more: <https://www.foodbankccs.org/about.html>
- To contribute online: <https://give.foodbankccs.org/give/190501/#!/donation/checkout>
- Or checks payable to Food Bank of Contra Costa and Solano, 4010 Nelson Ave., Concord, CA 94520
- To contribute non-perishable Food: <https://www.foodbankccs.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/01/Food-Drive-FAQ-2020-1.pdf>

Meals on Wheels Diablo Region. Meals on Wheels delivers subsidized meals to over 1,400 frail homebound elders in Contra Costa County. They served over 500,000 meals last year – and demand has increased since the pandemic.

- To learn more: <https://www.mowdiablregion.org/>
- To contribute online: <https://www.mowdiablregion.org/how-give/>
- Or checks payable to Meals on Wheels Diablo Region, 1300 Civic Dr, Walnut Creek, CA 94596